Exhibitor Safety & Security Guidelines

Show Name: Chicagoland Fishing, Travel & Outdoor Expo 2022 | Show Date: January 27-30, 2022 | Location: Renaissance Schaumburg Convention Center
Discount Deadline Date: January 10, 2022

Exhibitor Safety Guidelines

- Only authorized personnel and employees are allowed on the show floor, all others are prohibited.
- The showsite is an active work zone. Use extreme caution if you are in show areas where forklifts and vehicle traffic are operating during move-in and move-out.
- Stay clear of heavy machinery.
- All exhibitors must set up their displays within their booth boundaries.
- Booths extending into the aisle are subject to Fire Marshal Jurisdiction and an exhibitor may be fined for aisle encroachment.
- Do not enter the dock/yard areas.
- Standing on chairs, tables, or other rental furniture is prohibited. This furniture is not designed to support your standing weight.
- SourceOne Events, Inc. cannot be responsible for injuries, falls, or damage caused by the improper use of rental furniture or equipment. If assistance is required in assembling your booth, please order labor at the SourceOne Service Desk or in advance using the Exhibitor Service Kit
- Wear closed toe shoes.
- Clean up or report spills.
- Keep aisles free and clear of any and all debris.
- Any person involved in moving equipment, supplies, or goods into or out of the venue is prohibited from consuming alcohol or being under the influence of alcohol.
- All work carried out on booths on-site must conform to facility regulations.
- Practice good housekeeping.
- Check electrical cords for damage.
- Protect valuables at show site.
- Report any fires immediately.

If you notice anything unsafe please contact a SourceOne Events Employee immediately.

OSHA regulations prohibit minors from being present in a hazardous work environment. No individuals under the age of 18 are permitted on the show floor at any time. Show sites during move-in and move-out are similar to a construction zone and are considered to be dangerous.

Exhibitor Security Guidelines

- Please do not assume the exhibit hall is secure. Each exhibitor must take responsibility for the security of all the items in his or her booth. SourceOne Events, Inc., Show Management, venue personnel and the security contractor try to guard against theft and damage, but the ultimate burden falls on the exhibitor.
- Avoid listing the contents of crates and cartons on your shipping labels or on the crates and cartons. A label that reads “50” LED color monitor” is an open invitation for thieves.
- Be sure to have someone remain in your booth during the hectic and heavily populated move-in and move-out times.
- Never display “one-of-a-kind” items or irreplaceable samples unless someone is present at all times to keep an eye on them.
- Consider covering your exhibit with some sort of cloth at the close of each day. The psychological deterrent makes it more difficult for people to handle merchandise. Criminals often look for the easy mark first.
- Business tools such as cell phones, laptop computers, recorders, calculators, and give-away items are the things most often stolen. They should be guarded and stored safely at night.
- Thieves will also take personal items such as purses, suit coats, and toolboxes. Do not leave personal items unprotected in your booth.
- Never store items in containers marked “Empty.”
- Show management may provide security to prevent entry to the exhibit area by anyone not authorized. This security service does not guarantee exhibitors against loss or stolen items. Nor does it imply an assumption of liability for an exhibitor’s property by SourceOne Events, Inc., Show Management, or their agents.
- Your exhibit materials should be insured from the time they leave your facility until the time they return. Consult with your insurance agency about adding a rider to your existing policy.

If you notice anything unusual activity in your booth or a fellow exhibitors, please contact nearby Security or a SourceOne Events Employee immediately.
